Regulatory Update:

Personal Pension Plan (PPP) Contributions

The National Pension Commission (PenCom) has clarified the classification of contributions made under the Personal Pension Plan (PPP) to improve transparency and provide contributors with greater visibility of their pension savings. Under the PPP, contributions will now be categorised as:

- Self-Contributions – contributions made directly by individuals into their pension accounts.
- Employer-Remitted Contributions – contributions made by an employer on behalf of an employee based on the employee's written authorisation.

As a result, contributors will see these categories clearly reflected in their Retirement Savings Account (RSA) statements and other contribution records issued by their Pension Fund Administrator (PFA).

This enhancement is intended to provide greater clarity on the source of pension contributions and strengthen confidence in the management and reporting of pension savings.

Simplified Documentation Requirements for the Data Recapture Exercise

The National Pension Commission (PenCom) has simplified the documentation requirements for Retirement Savings Account (RSA) holders participating in the Data Recapture Exercise. The revised requirements are intended to make the process easier and more convenient for contributors and retirees.

Required Documents for Active Contributors and Retirees

RSA holders are required to provide:

1. Proof of National Identification

- National Identification Number (NIN) Enrolment Slip; or
- NIN Card showing the NIN and Date of Birth.

2. One Valid Means of Identification

- National Driver's Licence; or
- Permanent Voter's Card (PVC); or
- Staff Identity Card; or

Additional Requirements for Change of Name or Date of Birth

RSA holders whose name(s) or date of birth on their pension records differ from the details registered with the National Identity Management Commission (NIMC) may be required to provide additional supporting documents.

For Change of Name:

- Sworn Affidavit for Change of Name;
- Confirmation Letter from Employer (for active contributors);
- Newspaper Publication (for retirees).

For Change of Date of Birth:

- Confirmation Letter from Employer (for active contributors); or
- Birth Certificate or Declaration of Age (for retirees).

RSA holders are encouraged to update their records promptly to ensure that their pension information is accurate and consistent across all official records.
