CURRENT ASSET ALLOCATION

Industry Update

- Total pension assets increased by 0.92% to ₦31.80 trillion as of August 2026, from ₦31.51 trillion in July 2026, underscoring the industry's resilience and continued value creation for stakeholders.
- RSA Fund I recorded a 1.80% increase in assets, rising to ₦676.83 billion in August 2026 from ₦664.89 billion in July 2026.
- The growth in assets reflects the positive impact of prevailing capital market conditions, particularly asset price appreciation and investment performance, during August 2026.

Outlook for next month.

- The Naira is expected to remain broadly stable over the near to medium term, supported by improved foreign exchange liquidity, ongoing market reforms, and continued policy efforts to enhance transparency, price discovery, and efficiency in the FX market.
- The fixed-income market is expected to experience a gradual decline in yields, driven by easing inflationary pressures, anticipated monetary policy accommodation, and improved market liquidity. This environment is expected to support capital appreciation opportunities, particularly in longer-duration fixed-income instruments.
- The equities market is expected to record improved performance, supported by resilient corporate earnings, improving macroeconomic fundamentals, moderating interest rates, and strengthening investor sentiment. The anticipated decline in fixed-income yields may also encourage increased allocation to equities in search of higher returns.

Regulatory Update:

Personal Pension Plan (PPP) Contributions

The National Pension Commission (PenCom) has clarified the classification of contributions made under the Personal Pension Plan (PPP) to improve transparency and provide contributors with greater visibility of their pension savings. Under the PPP, contributions will now be categorised as:

- Self-Contributions – contributions made directly by individuals into their pension accounts.
- Employer-Remitted Contributions – contributions made by an employer on behalf of an employee based on the employee's written authorisation.

As a result, contributors will see these categories clearly reflected in their Retirement Savings Account (RSA) statements and other contribution records issued by their Pension Fund Administrator (PFA).

This enhancement is intended to provide greater clarity on the source of pension contributions and strengthen confidence in the management and reporting of pension savings.

Simplified Documentation Requirements for the Data Recapture Exercise

The National Pension Commission (PenCom) has simplified the documentation requirements for Retirement Savings Account (RSA) holders participating in the Data Recapture Exercise. The revised requirements are intended to make the process easier and more convenient for contributors and retirees.

Required Documents for Active Contributors and Retirees

RSA holders are required to provide:

- Proof of National Identification
 - National Identification Number (NIN) Enrolment Slip; or
 - NIN Card showing the NIN and Date of Birth.
- One Valid Means of Identification
 - National Driver's Licence; or
 - Permanent Voter's Card (PVC); or
 - Staff Identity Card; or
 - International Passport (mandatory for non-Nigerians).

Additional Requirements for Change of Name or Date of Birth

RSA holders whose name(s) or date of birth on their pension records differ from the details registered with the National Identity Management Commission (NIMC) may be required to provide additional supporting documents.

For Change of Name:

- Sworn Affidavit for Change of Name;
- Confirmation Letter from Employer (for active contributors);
- Newspaper Publication (for retirees).

For Change of Date of Birth:

- Confirmation Letter from Employer (for active contributors); or
- Birth Certificate or Declaration of Age (for retirees).

RSA holders are encouraged to update their records promptly to ensure that their pension information is accurate and consistent across all official records.
